WHARF AND WAVE.

The steamer Kanai sails for Lahaina Wednesday.

Kona-Kau steamer Mauna Loa due at noon today.

Work will commence on the new brewery buildings very shortly.

J. S. McCandless left on the Ke Au Hou last night for Hanalei.

The ship Fort George brought a number of passengers from San Francisco.

The United States army transport Newport sailed for Manila last Saturday morning.

The United States army transport Ohio left for Manila on Saturday evening at 6 o'clock.

The Kinan brought the first consignment of work from Hawaii for the Honolulu Steam Laundry.

The City of Columbia signed a crew yesterday and is scheduled to sail for Hongkong this morning.

Two large scows are being constructed at Lahaina for the use of H. Hackfeld & Co. and the Pioneer Mill.

The schooner Okanagan is still at Allen street discharging lumber. It is expected she will finish tomorrow.

The American ship Emily F. Whitney, now discharging general merchandise from New York at Fishmarket wharf, has a negro crew.

The barkentine Morning Star has been painted throughout and presents a clean and neat appearance. She will leave for Micronesia in the coming week.

Over 1,200 bags of rice, paddy has been taken off the La Nina by Captain Harry Evans and his crew of wreckers. The schooner will be a complete loss.

The weather at Lahaina is reported by the steamer Kanai, from Kaunakakai last Saturday, to be good, with a strong northeast breeze and moderate seas in the channel. Lahaina sugar will hereafter be in 100-pound bags.

The American barkentine Irmgard, with general cargo from San Francisco, arrived off Koko Head at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and later on came into the harbor. As soon as discharged she will load sugar for the Coast.

The schooner Ada, which arrived yesterday from Hana, will go to the wreck of the La Nina, off Barber's Point, where she will be used to lighter what can be saved. The rigging and tackle will be saved. Considerable paddy has already been taken from the hold.

The ship Fort George with the American flag at her stern, came into the harbor at 6 o'clock last evening with one of the largest cargoes of general merchandise ever brought to these islands from San Francisco. Besides her 4,000 tons of cargo she has 4 horses and 242 hogs on deck, which she will discharge at the Railway wharf today. The Fort George brought nine passengers.

The American steamer Columbia, with 72 Japanese immigrants and 104 tons of Oriental freight, arrived from Yokohama last Saturday morning and sailed yesterday at 6 a. m. for Portland. She belongs to the Northern Pacific Railroad and has been running some time between the Northwest and Hongkong. She is of 1,816 tons register. Two cabin passengers and 22 Chinese and 4 Japanese in the steerage were in transit. The small number of immigrants on the Columbia is accounted for by reason of some difficulty with the Japanese passport regulations just before the Columbia's sailing from Yokohama. There were some 700 immigrants booked but they were not allowed to depart. The Carmarthenshire, due from Yokohama in a fortnight, will probably bring them.

Vessels sailing today are: Steamer Iwakuni, Gregory, for Honolulu and Kure, 9 a. m.; steamer W. G.
